How to read it

The annual return is due on the 15th day of the fifth month after the fiscal year ends. When that date falls on a weekend or a legal holiday, the due date moves to the next business day. Legal holidays include Emancipation Day in Washington, D.C., which is why the last date here is April 18. A Form 8868 extension gives six more months to file.

An extension moves the filing date. It does not move the date any tax is due, for example on a Form 990-T. The Form 990-N e-Postcard is due on the same date and cannot be extended.

If your club uses a 52-53-week year, use the month-end nearest to your year-end. Check the IRS website for the exact date before you rely on it. Your facts may change the answer.
